MARGARET S. LEE BATTLE OF THE SEXES BOOK SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

INTRODUCTION

The Margaret S. Lee Battle of the Sexes (MSLBOS) Tournament Committee offers book scholarships to students enrolled in college. In honor of Bobby Richardson Sr., the purpose of this scholarship is to provide financial assistance to undergraduate college students who are National Bowling Association, Inc. (TNBA) members and remain active within their local bowling senates.

The annual number of scholarships and monetary amounts awarded will be determined by the MSLBOS Tournament Committee.

OPERATIONS & PROCEDURES

1. TNBA will assist by furnishing scholarship applications to the National Office to distribute to the Local Bowling Senates. The application can also be found on the TNBAinc.org website.
2. Eligibility is restricted to junior bowlers who are in college and are TNBA members. Applications are provided to qualified college students who continue to be active in their local bowling senate by bowling, volunteering, and/or other actions after high school.
3. Current recipients of the Owen O. Washington Scholarship are NOT eligible to apply this year. Students who applied, but did not receive the Owen O. Washington Scholarship may apply.
4. Any TNBA member may nominate an eligible college student from their local bowling senate.
5. The application along with the student's current college transcript and proof of enrollment must be turned in to the Local Bowling Senate Scholarship Chairperson.
6. The Local Bowling Senate Scholarship Chairperson will verify the students' activities within the senate and forward the completed application to the National Scholarship Chairperson NO later than January 10.
7. The MSLBOS Committee will evaluate the applications and make the final decision on the winners.
8. It is the MSLBOS committee's goal to provide assistance to students by the start of the midterm. Therefore adhering to deadlines is essential.
